1. Part A – Banker and customer relationship

1.1 Our relationship

These terms and conditions govern the banker-customer relationship between you and us. As well as these express written terms and conditions, there may be implied terms relating to everyday banking matters.

The opening of your account will be taken as your acceptance of these terms and conditions.

Where you are not already bound by the terms and conditions in this Product Guide, the first use by you or an authorised operator of your account will be taken as acceptance of these terms and conditions.

Your relationship with us may also automatically stop in some cases. For example, if you close your account, if you become bankrupt or insolvent, or if you die. If we wish to end your relationship with us, in most cases we will give you reasonable notice.

2. Part B – Banking with us

2.1 How to change your details

If you change your address, telephone number or other relevant details you must notify us promptly so we can update your information. If you change your name, all you have to do is show us the documentation that supports the change, for example a marriage certificate if you have changed to a new married name.

Please note that unless you give us reasonable notification of such changes we cannot be held responsible for any resulting errors or losses.

2.2 Information influencing your account

If you provide us with incomplete or incorrect information we may not be able to meet your needs in the best possible way. Also, if you refuse to tell us some information we request, we may not be able to provide you with a financial product or a banking service.

2.3 Statements

We will provide you with a monthly statement for the account.

Your statement is an easy-to-read record of all transactions you have made over the statement period. Every statement is worth keeping as it provides an invaluable record of all transactions, interest earned and government charges as well as the current balance. You should check each statement carefully and contact us immediately if you find any error or unauthorised transaction.

2.4 Communication between us

Notices, certificates, consents, approvals and other communications must be in writing. Communications from us may be signed by any of our authorised employees.

- Sent electronically – on the date of the document or the date on which the computer from which the information was sent produces evidence that the document was sent.

Communications given by newspaper advertisement are taken to be received on the date they are first published.

If you are a company, all communications from you must be signed by a director or authorised operator in certain circumstances.

We may serve any document in a court action (including a writ of summons, other originating process or third or other party notice) on you by delivering it to your residential or business address last known to us or by leaving it there. This does not prevent any other method of service.

We may telephone you to confirm any instructions regarding your account sent electronically to us. We reserve the right to withhold processing any instructions regarding your account sent electronically to us until we have confirmed these instructions with you by telephone.

2.5 Changes to your account or information contained in this Product Guide

2.5.1 Changes to account terms and conditions

2.11 Risk

All financial products carry risk and different products may carry different risks depending on the nature of that product. You should consider your level of risk tolerance prior to investing and should have regard to your own investment objectives, circumstances and needs, and consider the need for professional advice, including taxation and legal advice.

For example: an Offset Account may not be suitable for you e.g. another way to reduce interest payable on your Home Loan is to make additional repayments.

2.12 Financial Claims Scheme

The Financial Claims Scheme protects depositors through the provision of a guarantee on deposits (up to a cap) held in authorised deposit-taking institutions (ADI's) in Australia and allows quick access to their deposits if an ADI becomes insolvent.

As such please note the following information:

- You may be entitled to a payment under the Financial Claims Scheme in the event of us becoming insolvent;
- Accessibility to the Financial Claims Scheme is subject to eligibility criteria; and
- Information about the Financial Claims Scheme can be found at the APRA website at www.fcs.gov.au.

2.13 Account Switching

If you have opened your account as an individual i.e. not as a company or superannuation account, you have access to an easy payments switching service. This service enables you to switch your regular direct debits and credits from your old account to your new account with us. For more information about this service please contact us.

3. Part C – Using your account

3.1 Your account

3.1.1 How to open your account

To open an account with us you will need to complete an application form as part of your Home Loan application. You will need to sign this form to certify that all the information is correct. With this information we will be able to identify you. Your account is a transactional bank account and is a separate facility to your Home Loan, however it is directly linked to provide you with a 100% offset benefit.

Eligible Investors

You must be 18 years or over to open an account. Accounts are only available to persons receiving an up to date (electronic or otherwise) copy of this Product Guide within Australia. Applications from outside Australia will not be accepted. The individual(s) or entities in whose name in which the investment is made in and all signatories to the account must reside in Australia. Applications not meeting these requirements will be rejected.

Your personal details

Your personal information is collected to assess your application and to provide you with the product or service that you have requested. Your personal information may also be used to carry out marketing activities, research and product development.

Your personal information is treated as confidential and is only disclosed to others where necessary. For example, we would usually disclose your information to each other, to organisations to whom functions are outsourced such as mailing and printing houses, to IT providers, account holders and operators, and other financial institutions or persons nominated by you.

Your information may also be disclosed to related companies within the Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Group, where its confidentiality is maintained at all times. We do not sell, rent or trade your personal information.

In most cases you can gain access to your personal information. Please telephone 1300 652 220. if you have any queries about your personal information.

3.1.2 Minimum deposits, transactions and balances

There is no minimum initial deposit, no minimum withdrawal amount and no minimum/maximum operating balance.

If your account has a debit balance at the end of the day, your balance for that day, for offset purposes, will be deemed to be zero. If at the end of the day your account has a balance greater than the balance of your linked Home Loan, your daily balance for that day, for offset purposes, will be deemed to be equal to the balance of your linked Home Loan. You will not earn interest on the excess amount.

If your account is in debit please be aware that you may be charged. Please refer to Part D - Fees and charges for more information.

3.1.3 Availability of funds

Your funds are available at call.

3.2 How to identify yourself

When you open an account and do not already have an open account with us, we will need to obtain proof of your identity. The Commonwealth Government requires us to check your identity.

When you open an account with us we need to obtain identification as required by law, including 'Know Your Customer' requirements under anti-money laundering and counter terrorism financing legislation. This will include information such as, for an individual, name, residential address and date of birth and for a company, information such as details of directors and shareholders. Where the customer is a trust, details of the trustee and beneficiaries may be required. We may also require other information such as information about beneficial owner(s), and information about your activities and reason for opening an account in Australia.

You only need to provide this information once. We will file it for future reference should you open other accounts with us. This information is also required if you become a signatory to an account of another person or organisation.

3.3 Joint accounts

If you have a joint account with another person or persons, you will each be liable for any amount due to us on the account and any other obligation under these terms and conditions.

Under these terms and conditions you are liable both separately on your own and jointly with any one or more other persons named as account holders of your account.

This includes your successors and assigns. This means we can ask all of you or any one of you for the whole of the amount owing, if the account becomes overdrawn.

In some cases you may be able to limit your liability on a joint account. A request to limit your liability to us will only apply in relation to future advances and not to money already owing. You should direct any requests to limit your liability in writing to us. Requests are only effective upon written acceptance from us.

Joint liability for amounts owing to us may also be limited as a result of family law property proceedings, for example following a Family Court decision to transfer the mortgage and title on a jointly owned home.

Upon the death of one or more of you, we shall be entitled to treat the survivor(s) as having title to your account. However, we will normally treat all authorities for operating the joint account as cancelled once we know of your death (and certain conditions have been met) or of your bankruptcy.

We must be notified as soon as practicable if one of you dies.

It will be up to you and the other joint account holders to say how many of you must sign in order to operate the account. Any such arrangement will form part of the terms and conditions of the account with us and may be altered at the request of you and the other joint account holders.

If we receive no other instructions we will assume the signature of any of you is required.

Regardless of any arrangement with us, any holder of a joint account can require us to operate the account only on the signature of all parties. This might be done if there is a dispute between the joint account holders.

Unless we agree otherwise, the signature of any of you is required:

- On any notice or request for withdrawal of monies
- On receipt for monies paid
- To appoint or remove an authorised operator to your account
- To end your relationship with us under these terms and conditions at your request.

If there is more than one of you, you authorise us to accept for the credit of your account any cheque payable to any one or more of you.

You agree that where you hold an account jointly with another person or persons, you each appoint the other account holder(s) as your agent for the purposes of receiving a copy of this Product Guide, statements of account, transaction confirmations and any other information relating to the account that is required to be provided to each account holder. You can obtain copies of any of this information at any time by contacting us.

3.4 Giving someone access to your account

We may allow any person nominated by you who is aged 18 years or older to be an authorised operator on your account. An authorised operator is able to use your account in any way we allow, subject to any restrictions that we agree to. Each use of your account by an authorised operator is subject to this agreement as if you had used the account.

Allowing someone else to operate your account enables that person to access any financial information about your account, including:

- The balance of your account
- Any payments due on your account including the amount, due date and details of the payment
- Copies of documents issued by us such as statements
- Details of any transaction on your account.

3.4.1 Who you can appoint

You may appoint any of the following to be an authorised operator on your account:

- A person aged 18 years or older.

3.4.2 Cancelling authorised operator status

You may cancel an authority to operate at any time.

Authorised operators may also cancel their own authorised operator status at any time.

Authorised operators will automatically have their status revoked, once we receive confirmation (to our satisfaction) that the authorised operator has experienced an insolvency event. Upon revocation of the authorised operator status, the account will be operated by you as a direct customer.

3.4.3 How to appoint an authorised operator.

If you wish to appoint an authorised operator you should forward to us your completed and signed authorised operator form.

Authorised operators are not able to appoint or remove other authorised operators on your account.

3.4.4 Terms and conditions applicable to authorised operators

You should ensure that an authorised operator is familiar with:

- The terms and conditions in this Product Guide (prior to that authorised operator using a transaction service), and
- Any changes we make to these terms and conditions (authorised operators should note that we may not be obliged to notify them of those changes).

We will provide a copy of this Product Guide to you or an authorised operator at any time upon request.

When you allow an authorised operator to use your account (including use of a transaction service) you are bound by and liable for any such use (including for any fees and charges) as if your account had been used by you. However, you will not be liable if the authorised operator's rights to use your account were previously withdrawn in accordance with the following paragraph.

An authorised operator's rights to use your account will be withdrawn from when you have notified us in writing when you want that to happen, and whether any card issued to that authorised operator has been returned to us or you have taken reasonable steps to return the card to us. If you are a joint account holder, all of your signatures are required.

If you are unable to return to us a card issued to an authorised operator you may ask us to place a temporary stop on the access that the authorised operator has to your account. However, unless and until the card issued to the authorised operator is returned to us the stop will not necessarily prevent the authorised operator from using the card. Unless you have taken reasonable steps to return the card to us, you will incur liability for all transactions arising from use of the card by the authorised operator. We may require you to make a written statement outlining the steps you have taken in attempting to return the card to us. You may place a temporary stop on the authorised operator's access by contacting us.

We may cancel the appointment of an authorised operator, by giving you 14 days written notice of our intention to do so.

Where an authorised operator is a company, the powers of operation vested in the company are also taken to be vested in any director, any employee and any agent (accepted by us) of the company, and where the authorised operator is a partnership, the powers of operation are also taken to be vested in any partner, any employee and any agent (accepted by us) of the partnership.

Where there is more than one authorised operator any one of them may give instructions in relation to your account, unless you specify otherwise.

3.5 How to make deposits and withdrawals

There are many ways you can access your account with us. Please refer to the Offset Account overview in this Product Guide or the Accessing Your Account booklet for further details on how to make deposits and withdrawals.

3.6 Interest rates

When deciding whether an account is the best account for you, it is important to not only know how the interest you earn is calculated, but also how often the interest is paid. Please refer to the Offset Account overview in this Product Guide to find out how interest is paid on your account.

Offset Account

Instead of earning interest, the balance in your account helps reduce the interest you pay on your linked Home Loan.

The higher the balance in your account, the less interest you pay on your linked Home Loan and the quicker you pay out your mortgage.

Here's how it works, using the assumptions below*:

Loan amount:	$200,000
Home Loan interest rate:	7.00%
Offset Account balance:	$10,000

Interest charged after 5 years:	$70,000
---------------------------------	----------

Interest charged after 5 years:	$66,500

$3,500 offset savings

Interest charged after 10 years:	$140,000
----------------------------------	-----------

Interest charged after 10 years:	$133,000

$7,000 offset savings

* For the purposes of this comparison it is assumed that the balance of the Offset Account, the loan amount and the Home Loan interest rate remain the same over the life of the loan.

3.7 Overdrawn accounts and interest charges

There must not be a balance owing on your account. If there is a balance owing on your account then that amount is immediately due and payable by you to us.

It is your responsibility to ensure that there are sufficient cleared funds available in your account, or that you have made the necessary arrangements with us, to allow a payment to be made. If you overdraw the account and we dishonour the transaction, a fee will be charged to your account.

We may charge interest on any overdrawn amount. Interest will be charged to your account on the last day of each statement period and on the day that our relationship with you ends. If, however, the day we debit interest charges is not a banking day we may debit interest charges on the preceding banking day.

Interest charges are calculated daily from the date your account is overdrawn up to and including the date we are paid. Depending on how long before you repay the money to us, interest may be capitalised at the end of the periods we choose. Please refer to the contact details section at the beginning of this Product Guide to find out how to obtain the current interest charges applicable to your account.

You may also be charged a fee to reimburse us for any costs we incur in the recovery of our money.

3.8 Amounts which can be debited to your account

You agree that we may debit to your account without notifying you each drawing you, or an authorised operator, make or authorise on your account and you agree to pay us fees and charges debited as described in clause 5.1 and any other amount you must pay in connection with these terms and conditions on the date it becomes due.

3.9 Minimum deposit balances

You must ensure that your account is maintained consistently with the minimum operating balance described in clause 3.1.2 of these terms and conditions, and if you do not we will inform you and ask you to restore the balance to the minimum.

Should your account fall below the minimum operating balance or have no balance and you do not restore it on request, we reserve the right to close the account.

3.10 How accounts may be closed or suspended

You may close or suspend access to your account at any time. Upon your request, another financial institution may close your account on your behalf by mail.

We may exercise our discretion to close, or suspend access to, your account due to unsatisfactory conduct or for any other reason (e.g. if we reasonably consider it necessary to prevent fraud or other losses to you or us) where we consider it reasonably necessary to protect our legitimate interests, or to benefit you. If we close your account, we will notify you as soon as possible.

If your account has a deposit balance we will pay the deposit balance to you or as you direct.

If our relationship with you ends, your liabilities (including the obligations to make any payment and your liability for any interest charges and fees and charges) continue even if we pay you any deposit balance in your account. If your account is in credit when closed, where applicable, any interest will be credited to the balance. If any accrued fees or charges, or government charges are due on the account up to the closing day, these may be deducted from the account balance. Monthly fees may still apply where the account is closed part way through the month. If there are uncleared funds in the account we will not make these funds available to you until the funds are cleared.

If your account has a debit balance on closing you must pay us the balance owing plus any accrued interest charges, other fees or charges and any government charges applicable to the day of closing.

If you do not meet the minimum requirement of this product we have the ability to close your account.

Please note

Upon closure of the linked Home Loan your account will close.

Before closing an account, you should ensure you notify anyone who makes payments to or from your account, and cancel any regular payments to or from the account.

Please be aware that any linked offset account will be closed with the loan account. Any available balance held within your offset account will be absorbed in the final payout calculation. If you require access to these funds you will need to transfer to an alternative account no later than 3 days prior to settlement as the account funds will no longer be available to access after this date.

4. Part D – Fees and charges

4.1 Fees and charges payable

You agree to pay us:

- All fees and charges described in this Product Guide plus any new fees and charges we impose under the terms and conditions, and
- Government charges, including all additional government stamp and other duties and charges payable on receipts or withdrawals under these terms and conditions, including, where applicable, on credit business in Queensland (these duties and charges are payable by you at the time, as a matter of law, they are required to be paid), and
- Any expenses we incur in enforcing the terms and conditions of your account. You authorise us to debit any of these amounts to your account. We may do so on or after the date we pay them or the date they become due or payable by you or us (whichever is earlier).

We can at any time choose not to collect a fee or charge from you. This does not prejudice our right to collect the fee or charge in the future. The amount or frequency or time of payment of a fee or charge may change or a new fee or charge may be imposed in accordance with these terms and conditions.

5. Part E – General matters

5.1 Insolvency and bankruptcy

If you experience an insolvency event, you or your authorised operator must immediately notify us of this fact.

Once we receive notification of the insolvency event, we will stop your account, denying you access to your money, and we will act on instructions from your administrator or similar official.

If you have a partnership account or a joint account and one of the account holders or partners is subject to an insolvency event, once we receive notification of the insolvency event, we will stop the account and deny all the account holders access to the account and we will act on instructions from your administrator or similar official.

5.2 Default

You will be in default if you breach these terms and conditions or any other agreement you have with us, or if any information you give us in connection with your account is, in our opinion, false or misleading. You must notify us immediately if you become aware that you are in default under these terms and conditions.

If you are in default, we may give you a notice stating that you are in default.

If you do not correct the default within any period given in the notice then, at the end of that period and without further notice to you, the total amount owing becomes immediately due for payment (to the extent it is not already due for payment). We may then sue you for that amount.

In limited circumstances set down by law (such as if we are unable to locate you), we need not give the notice or wait until the end of any period given in a notice. In such a case, the total amount owing becomes immediately due for payment without notice and we may then immediately sue you for that amount.

If you are in default, we may use any money you have in this account or in another account with us towards repaying the total amount owing (this is known as a contractual right to 'combine accounts'). We may combine accounts without giving you any notice but we will advise you afterwards. This provision does not affect any rights we have to combine accounts which arise by operation of law.

Your obligation to pay on time is not cancelled by these provisions. Further information on combining accounts is in the following paragraphs.

5.3 Combining accounts and set-off

We can combine the balances of two or more of your accounts. For example, if your account is overdrawn we might use money in your savings account to reduce the amount you owe on your account.

When you have an existing account with us and you open a new account covered by this Product Guide, the new account can be combined with your existing account.

However, this would not happen where, for example:

- We know the accounts are not held by you in the same capacity (for example, where you have a personal account and also an account as trustee for your child)
- Your debt to us arises from some business other than banking
- We have specifically agreed to keep your accounts separate or your dealings with us suggest such an agreement.

When combining accounts we will comply with any applicable requirements of the Code of Operation for Department of Human Services and Department of Veteran's Affairs Direct Credit Payments.

We will not exercise our right to combine your accounts in connection with amounts you owe in respect of any credit facility which you hold with us that is regulated by the National Credit Code:

- While we are actively considering your financial situation as a result of your hardship application

(we may ask you, as a condition of not exercising our right to combine your accounts, to agree to retain funds in an account until our decision on your hardship application has been made); or

- While you are complying with an agreed arrangement with us resulting from our consideration of your hardship application.

We will promptly tell you if we have combined any of your accounts, but we are not liable to do so beforehand. You cannot presume an overdrawn account will be combined by us with an account which is in credit (for example, in order to cover a direct debit which has overdrawn your account) unless we have agreed to this. Subject to any statutory right of set-off which we cannot exclude by agreement, you must pay us all amounts due under these terms and conditions in full without setting off amounts you believe we owe you and without counterclaiming amounts from us. We may set off any amounts we owe you against money you owe us.

5.4 Taxation and social security

5.4.1 Assessable income

All income that you receive in relation to your account will be assessable income for taxation purposes unless you are exempt from income tax. You may wish to seek independent taxation advice before opening an account.

5.4.2 Tax file number (TFN) notification

You are not obliged to provide us with your TFN, however if you do not supply us with your TFN or claim a valid exemption for each account holder we will be required to deduct tax from interest payments made to you. Tax will be deducted at the highest marginal rate plus the Medicare Levy in accordance with Australian Taxation Office requirements.

Australian companies and certain other business entities may supply an ABN instead of a TFN.

Please note that if the TFN is not provided at the opening of this account and withholding tax is deducted, we can not refund the tax deducted and you are required to contact the Australian Taxation Office to obtain any refund.

5.4.3 Social security

Bank accounts are subject to both income and assets tests, and therefore a deposit with us may affect your entitlement to a social security benefit. We recommend that you seek independent advice from a financial adviser or Centrelink before choosing to make a deposit.

5.5 Financial difficulty

If you are experiencing financial difficulty, you should promptly inform us by contacting us.

5.6 Incapacity

If we are satisfied that:

- You have become of unsound mind or incapable of managing your affairs through age or infirmity or any other reason;
- No committee, receiver or guardian has been appointed although the contrary may be the fact,

We may permit a withdrawal by any person who appears, to our satisfaction, to have the care or custody of you or the management of your affairs of the whole or any portion of the deposit balance of your account. Such withdrawal shall be taken to be a valid act by you and the receipt of funds by such person shall be binding upon you. We shall not be liable to any person including you in respect of any such withdrawal.

We do not exclude any liability to you for loss or damage to you arising directly from the fraud, negligence or wilful misconduct of us, our employees or agents or a receiver appointed by us.

5.7 Equitable interests

Except as required by court order or these terms and conditions and although our records may indicate that money deposited with us is held on trust, we may not and are not obliged to recognise any beneficial interest in that money.

5.8 Adjustments

We may subsequently adjust debits and credits to your account so as to accurately reflect the legal obligations of you and us (for example, because of an error or a dishonour). If we do this we may make consequential adjustments (including to interest charges).

5.9 End of day

A day of the week ends for any purpose under this agreement at 5.00pm Central Standard Time (CST).

5.10 Variations and waivers

A provision of these terms and conditions, or a right created under it, may not be waived except in writing signed by the party or parties to be bound. We may agree to change these terms and conditions or defer or waive any of these terms and conditions without creating a new agreement.

5.11 Time

A reference to a time in this Product Guide is a reference to Central Standard Time (CST).

5.12 How we may exercise our rights

Acting reasonably at all times, we may exercise a right or remedy or give or refuse our consent in any way we consider appropriate including by imposing reasonable conditions. If we do not exercise a right or remedy fully or at a given time, we can still exercise it later. Our rights and remedies under these terms and conditions are in addition to other rights and remedies provided by law independently of it or by any other agreement. Our rights and remedies under these terms and conditions may be exercised by any of our employees or any other person we authorise.

We may only exercise our rights under a term in these terms and conditions to the extent (if any) reasonably necessary to protect our legitimate interests. This clause applies to a term in these terms and conditions, despite any other term, if it:

- is subject to unfair contract terms legislation; and
- is to our advantage; and
- causes a significant imbalance in the rights and obligations of you and us under these terms and conditions; and
- would cause detriment to you if we applied the term or relied on the term.

Words used in this clause have the meanings given to them in the unfair contract terms legislation.

To the full extent permitted by law, we are not liable for loss (including consequential loss) caused by the exercise or attempted exercise of, failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, a right or remedy to the extent it was not caused by the negligence, fraud or wilful misconduct of us, our employees or agents or a receiver appointed by us.

5.13 Our certificates

We may give you a certificate about a matter or about an amount payable in connection with these terms and conditions. We may use the certificate as evidence of the matter or amount unless it is incorrect.

5.14 Assignment

We may assign our rights under these terms and conditions. You agree that we may disclose any information or documents we consider desirable to help us exercise this right. Your rights are personal to you and may not be assigned without our written consent.

5.15 Inconsistent legislation

Where legislation applies to these terms and conditions then if that legislation would otherwise make a provision of these terms and conditions illegal, void or unenforceable, or a provision of these terms and conditions would otherwise contravene a requirement of that legislation or impose an obligation or liability that is prohibited by legislation, these terms and conditions are to be read as if that provision were varied to the extent necessary to comply with that legislation or, if necessary, omitted.

To the extent allowed by law and subject to the paragraph above, these terms and conditions prevail to the extent they are inconsistent with any law.

5.16 Applicable law

These terms and conditions are governed by the law in force in Victoria. You and we submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that place.
